Ilanah* and Yael* woke up to sirens, gunfire, and rockets over their Gaza-border home. Their family fled with only the clothes on their backs. Stuck in a hotel for months, YOU brought them clothes, hygiene kits, and toys, providing hope amid turmoil.

Alena*, a single mom, faced abuse, poverty, and an unplanned pregnancy. YOU provided counseling, baby supplies, and essentials for her family. Now she lives in safety, cares for her children, and has a renewed sense of hope.

Munir* was a stranger to the discipleship meeting. In an area hostile to the Gospel, a partner YOU support took a risk and shared the message of Jesus with him. Munir and his wife decided to follow Christ and now boldly share the Truth with others.

Miriam*, a Holocaust survivor, was evacuated from northern Israel with very few belongings—even the most basic ones.

While she was living in a hotel to escape the rocket attacks, YOU sent hygiene kits and a message of love, reminding her she was not forgotten.
